APPEA BOARD ELECTS WOODSIDE ENERGY CEO MEG O'NEILL AS NEW CHAIR

The Board of the Australian Petroleum Production & Exploration Association (APPEA) is pleased to announce the election of Meg O'Neill as Chair and Morné Engelbrecht as Vice-Chair following APPEA's Annual General Meeting (AGM) in Perth today.

Ms O'Neill was elected to the APPEA Board in 2019 and has served as Vice-Chair for the past year. She has held the position of Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director of Woodside Energy since 2021.

Mr Engelbrecht was elected to the Board in 2021 and has held the position of Chief Executive Officer of Beach Energy since May this year.

APPEA welcomes two new Directors: Dan Clark of ConocoPhillips Australia Pty Ltd and Joel Riddle of Tamboran Resources Limited.

Outgoing APPEA Chair Ian Davies, Chief Executive Officer Senex Energy, was first elected to the APPEA Board in 2017 and has also served as Vice-Chair.

As Chair, Mr Davies has helped lead APPEA through significant challenges – from global pressures to public activism against the industry.

He also oversaw substantial organisational changes, including recruiting new Chief Executive Samantha McCulloch, and the development and implementation of APPEA's new Constitution.

Following the Annual General Meeting election, the Association's Directors are as follows:

- Meg O'Neill, Woodside Energy Limited (Chair)
- Morné Engelbrecht, Beach Energy Limited (Vice Chair)
- Frank Calabria, Origin Energy Limited
- Kate Callaghan, Chevron Australia Pty Ltd
- Dan Clark, ConocoPhillips Australia Pty Ltd
